

University Medical Centre GDPR Candidate Privacy Notice

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS DOCUMENT?

The Practice is a “data controller”. This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you. You are being sent a copy of this privacy notice because you are applying for work with us (whether as an employee, worker or contractor). It makes you aware of how and why your personal data will be used, namely for the purposes of the recruitment exercise, and how long it will usually be retained for. It provides you with certain information that must be provided under the General Data Protection Regulation (EU 2016/679) (GDPR)

DATA PROTECTION PRINCIPLES

The Practice will comply with data protection law and principles, which means that your data will be:

- Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
- Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with these purposes.
- Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
- Accurate and kept up to date.
- Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.
- Kept securely.

In connection with your application for work with us, the Practice will collect, store and use the following categories of personal information about you:

- The information you have provided to us in your curriculum vitae and covering letter.
- The information you have provided on your application form, including name, title, address, telephone number, personal email address, date of birth, gender, employment history, qualifications and referee details.
- Any information you provide to us during an interview.

The Practice may also collect, store and use the following types of more sensitive personal information:

- Information about your race or ethnicity, religious beliefs and sexual orientation.
- Information about your health including any medical conditions, health and sickness records.
- Information about criminal convictions and offences.

HOW IS YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTED?

The Practice collects personal information about candidates from the following sources:

- You, the candidate.
- Disclosure and Barring Service in respect of criminal convictions and background check.
- Your named referees

HOW WE WILL USE INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

The Practice will use the personal information we collect about you to:

- Assess your skills, qualifications and suitability for the work or role.
- Carry out background and reference checks where applicable.
- Communicate with you about the recruitment process.
- Keep records related to our hiring process.
- Comply with legal or regulatory requirements.

It is in our legitimate interests to decide whether to appoint you to work since it would be beneficial to our business to appoint someone to that role.

The Practice also needs to process your personal information to decide whether to enter into a contract of employment with you.

Having received your CV or application form we will then process that information to decide whether you meet the basic requirements to be shortlisted for the role. If you do we will decide whether your application is strong enough to invite you for an interview. If we decide to call you for an interview we will use the information you provide to us at interview to decide whether to offer you the role. The offer is subject to receiving 2 references and a satisfactory DBS check.

IF YOU FAIL TO PROVIDE PERSONAL INFORMATION

If you fail to provide information when requested, which is necessary for us to consider your application (such as evidence of qualifications or work history), we will not be able to process your application successfully. For example, if we require references for this role and you fail to provide us with relevant details, we will not be able to take your application further.

HOW WE USE PARTICULARLY SENSITIVE PERSONAL INFORMATION

The Practice will use your particularly sensitive personal information in the following ways:

- We will use information about your disability status to consider whether we need to provide appropriate adjustments during the recruitment process, for example, whether adjustments need to be made during an interview.
- We will use information about your race or ethnic origin, religious, philosophical or moral beliefs, or your sexual life or sexual orientation to ensure meaningful equal opportunity monitoring and reporting.

INFORMATION ABOUT CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

The Practice envisages that we will collect information about your criminal convictions.

The practice will collect information about your criminal convictions history if we would like to offer you the role, conditional on checks and any other conditions such as references being satisfactory. We are required to carry out either a Standard or Enhanced DBS check in order to satisfy ourselves that there is nothing in your criminal conviction history which makes you unsuitable for the role. The level of check is dependent on your role.

The Practice has in place an appropriate policy document and safeguards which are required by law to maintain when processing such data.

AUTOMATED DECISION-MAKING

You will not be subject to decisions that will have a significant impact on you based solely on automated decision-making.

DATA SHARING

Why might you share my personal information with third parties?

The Practice will only share your personal information with third parties for the purposes of processing your application. All our third-party service providers and other entities are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your personal information in line with our policies. The Practice does not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes. We only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

DATA SECURITY

The Practice has put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need-to-know. They will only process your personal information on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality. Details of these measures may be obtained from the Practice Manager.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

DATA RETENTION

How long will you use my information for?

The Practice will retain your personal information for no longer than is necessary after we have communicated to you our decision about whether to appoint you to role. The practice will retain your personal information so that we can show, in the event of a legal claim, that we have not discriminated against candidates on prohibited grounds and that we conducted the recruitment exercise in a fair and transparent way. After this period, we will securely destroy your personal information in accordance with our data retention policy.

If we wish to retain your personal information on file, on the basis that a further opportunity may arise in future and we may wish to consider you for that, we will write to you separately seeking your explicit consent to retain your personal information for a fixed period on that basis.
